

University of Birmingham - 52 Pritchatts - Case Study

dlinexsign Ltd recently worked with Associated Architects and Bouygues on the £5.5 million refurbishment of the University's current facilities at 52 Pritchatts Road. Providing teaching space for the psychology and Brain Dependency Unit.

Supplying a mixture of bead blasted steel and varying colours of frosted lucite onto our jigsaw (TM) modular wall rail system. This was complimented with bead blasted floor level numerals and folio (tm) paper insert door signs. part K5.2 of the government building regulations.

